TEENAGERS GIVEN CHANCE TO SOLVE PROBLEMS

YOUTH COUNCIL OFFICERS and advisors pictured are (l. to r.) Chris Yee, president; Kim Monroe, treasurer; Austen D. Warburton, chairman, Delinquency Prevention/Juvenile Justice Commission; Mariann Gregory, secretary and chairman of publicity; and Jan E. Welda, a member of the Youth Council.

This year more than 1000 drug cases will be referred to the County Juvenile Probation Department, compared to 123 in 1966 and a total of 55 cases from 1959 to 1966!

"Teenagers today will not roll over and play dead. They are very intelligent and inquisitive. The newly formed County Youth Council takes advantage of this situation by giving teena chance to have a hand in solving their own problems, such as drugs and many others," Nino says.

Overcoming prejudice by associating youth of different backgrounds, color, and creed, coordinating activities of various youth organizations, and providing a channel of communication between adults and youth of Santa Clara County are some of the purposes of the newly formed Youth Council.

WARREN

por Daniel Saldaña

De la ruindad y bajeza obligada en un asesinato, se levanta inmaculado el pedestal de un mártir que en las generaciones venideras será ejemplo y guía de los norteamericanos de color.

El asesinato del líder Martin Luther King Jr. lo hace grande hasta convertirlo en mártir, lo eleva a la categoría de héroe y lo hace bandera del grupo étnico al que pertenece.

Ha desaparecido el hombre, pero queda su ejemplo; sus plantas no trillaran los caminos en marchas de protesta demandando justicia, ni su voz resonará en todos los ámbitos de la Unión Americana demandando los derechos de los suyos; pero desde la tumba en que descanzan sus restos, seguirá siendo el guía, el líder y el pilar en que descanzará la redención del negro que apesar de su color es un individuo que pertenece a la especie humana y tiene derecho a recibir trato igual a cualesquier otro hombre de cualquier color.

En paz descance Martin Luther King.

The World of Fashion claims that the reason women wear "MINI SKIRTS" is because it' s the latest style. In your opinion, what other reason could it be and how do you feel about it?

TERESA MEDINA ROJO ..... Many girls have beautiful legs and they want to show them off. A fat girl shouldn't wear them, it makes them look awful. Could you imagine what an elephant looks like wear- a "Mini Skirt"?

EVA G. CONTRERAS ..... Girls with skinny legs shouldn' t wear them either, but if they have beautiful legs and wear them they sure are very lucky.

MRS. ESPERANZA MELGOZA ..... In my opinion, people have different suggestions; some think they look good wearing them and others don't approve of it. There is an old saying in Spanish, "Yo cuido mi casa y dejo lo ajeno".

DANNY AGUIRRE ..... I love it! If they got something to show, why hide it?

LUPE PEREZ ..... Well, it' s the latest style and women like to keep up with the latest in wearing apparel. That' s the only reason I can think for wearing them.

CHRIS CARMONA ..... Young girls look real nice in them. I could say more on it, but that' s all I am able to say now. (He later gave me other reasons, but due to lack of space we decided not to mention it).

ANNA REYES ..... I wouldn' t wear a "Mini Skirt" because it calls too much attention to the men. A nice looking woman shouldn't have to wear one to attract a man, she can still be attractive without wearing them.

LUCY DELGADILLO ..... I don' t like long skirts because it doesn't show much, at least that' s what my boyfriend tells me.

PAUL GARY ..... It's nice to see a shapely girl wearing a miniskirt because it leaves a lot to the imagination. By the same token, it makes me feel that there is more to it than meets the eye. Seeing them in those "cute short dresses" incites a man's ego a lot more than to see them in shorts, bikini or even in the raw for that matter. (Oh, you nasty old man!)

In my humble opinion, I would rather see a girl wearing a "Miniskirt" than to have them parade down the streets of San Jose in their Pajamas. Ever see them wearing those things???

By the way, I heard that there are three kinds of Miniskirts: Mini, Micro and don't bend over. OK?? ..... Would you believe? In Russia, Soviet bureaucrats, who enforce state standards, have dictated that Russian girls must wear "maxislips" with miniskirts. According to the specifications, it is ruled that skirts could follow fashion by rising above the knee but warned that slips must stay the same old length.

Sincere Sympathy

First of all the Club Riviera members would like to extend their sincere sympathy to one of our honorary members, Harold Martinez in the loss of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Martinez. We would also like to extend our sympathy to the whole Martinez family for losing such a beloved part of the family.

Speedy Recovery

We would like to wish Mrs. Susan Lopez a speedy recovery. It seems that she sprained her back and while in the hospital for that, they found other things wrong with her. Anyway, get well soon.

Sports

Club Riviera had a practice game Sunday, April 7, with the U.A.W. Riviera beat 2 to 0. The Club Riviera men are looking good this year, so far. Seems that Joe Padilla our new Athletic Director is doing a very good job. At our Sunday practice game we had a traitor on the U.A.W. team. That's what you get for playing against us Paul!! It was a good game but where were our head cheerleaders Delores and Vivian?

Baptismal

On March 30th, Herman Gonzales was baptised. He is the son of Gonzalo and Chelo Gonzales. The proud godparents were Mr. & Mrs. Paul Ramirez, two of our very active members. There was a party held in Herman's honor at Gonzalo and Chelo's house. It was quite a party too. Everyone really had a good time. I heard that after we left someone passed out in the back yard. I wonder who it could be? Seems that everyone was having a good time dancing and someone missed this person and they found him in the back yard out cold. Chelo is still wondering how it happened. Well anyway my husband Al and I had a wonderful time.

Baby Shower

A baby shower was held for Chris Henry on Sunday, April 7. She received many nice things for the expected new arrival. I would like to thank all the girls for coming to the party.

Food Drive

Well, the Food Drive is finally over. This year was quite successful except for a few minor problems. I rather enjoyed being the Concession Chairman even though it was nerveracking.

I would like to thank Mr. Martin Mendez for donating weiners, and Mr Flores of the La Guadalajara Market for donating weiners also. For donating the buns I would like to thank Mr. Ray Villegas of the Burger bar on 1st and Goodyear for getting them for me and also for the use of the warmer. These men were really cooperative this year and I thank you all.

For helping me get started this year I thank Velia Duran for being so helpful. If it wasn't for her I never would have known where to begin.

I would also like to thank all the women who helped behind the hot dog stand. Especially Marce who was always there willing to help.

Sponsor

You can get fast service at Ben's Hancock Service Station on Monterey Rd. Ben also has many other talents, don't you Ben: He showed a very unusual one at the Baptism Party. Be sure to go on out there if you want fast friendly serfive.

Well it is time for me to close once again, but first I want to thank Hillard Payer, on behalf of his wife Dee, for all the wonderful presents she received for her birthday.

Meanwhile everyone is preparing for American G.I. Forum State Convention scheduled to be held at the Clearmont Hotel in Berkley in June.

Ed Comunez Scholarship Chairman

Since Julian Camacho was not able to live up to his commitment as Chairman, this highly important responsibility has returned to the able hands of Ed Comunez.

Prior to turning over the Scholarship Records to the new chairman, your reporter had the opportunity to review the scholastic records received within the last week for students to be considered by the Committee for a scholarship award. Upon completion of my analysis I have learned that there are some (10) ten students in the senior year in high school with an outstanding scholastic record who plan to attend a college or university. According to their family income I can't see how they can possibly make it without financial assistance, having (9) nine children of my own I feel well qualified to make the above statement. I also recognize the fact that the GI Forum Scholarship Committee will not be able to provide each student with an award. At this point, I would like to mention that raising funds for a scholarship is a project that everyone can participate in, believe me there are just numerous ways in which you can help. If you find yourself interested in helping, call Ed Comunez at 243-4452 or just talk to any member of the American GI Forum. If you are of Mexican descent you should become concerned with the education of the new Mexican American Generation as the picture seems to be changing; and the day will come when the Mexican will realize that the answer to rising in the social and economic ladder is education. Education is the key that unlocks the door to the opportunities and wealth of the United States. With the "KEY" the Mexican can rise from his low rung on the social and economic ladder of the United States.

SINOPSIS

"Los Adolescentes" es una historia de jóvenes. Una historia sobre sus problemas y sobre sus inquietudes . . . sobre la búsqueda que hacen de sí mismos y de la que dedican en pos del amor . . .

Juan (CARLOS PIÑAR), es un joven apuesto y rico. Su madre, Lala (LUCY GALLARDO), que ha entrado en la dulzona madurez del otoño, le proporciona todo lo que un joven puede desear para considerarse feliz. Con sus amigos Ramón (JULIAN PASTOR), Ceci (CLAUDIA MARTELL) y Felipe (ALFONSO MUNGUIA), Juan comparte su pasión por la velocidad y, a bordo de motocicletas, el grupo de jóvenes desafía a la muerte, buscando en emociones pasajeras y artificiales, algo que ellos creen son las pasiones estrujantes de la vida. Kikis (RENATA SEYDEL), como antes lo hicieron muchas otras, ofrece a Juan amistad y comprensión . . . momentos fugaces de amor, también. Más una vez en posesión de una mujer, de una motocicleta o de cualquier otra cosa que ha deseado con fervor, Juan se siente abrumado por una indefinible y perturbadora sensación de vacío, de soledad y de angustia.

Y es que Juan no conoce el verdadero amor. Hasta que encuentra a María (JULISSA), joven sencilla y dulce, casta, pura e irreprochable. Juan y María se enamoran . . . pero no se comprenden. Pertenecen a mundos distintos, incompatibles. Juan introduce a María en su mundo . . . un mundo deslumbrante y magnífico. Lala, por su parte, ha visto desfilar a muchas mujeres en la vida de su hijo, pero, en el caso de María, llega a la conlusión de que ahora sí va a perderlo, e inconscientemente coloca obstáculos a ese cariño.

Juan, como ha sucedido siempre, cree que la culminación de ese sentimiento dulce y perturbador que siente por María, tendrá que ser la posesión. Pero María, herida y avergonzada, lo rechaza. Juan no comprende. Piensa que la actitud de María obedece a una educación llena de prejuicios y convencionalismos inherentes a la moral burguesa.

Teatro LIBERTY SAN JOSE CALIFORNIA

LOS ADOLESCENTES

Will play at the Liberty Theatre

April 25 thru the 30th

Juan tiene vergüenza de confesar a María que siente por ella lo que no ha sentido antes por ninguna otra mujer. Deciden no volverse a ver. María le dice que lo ama. A ella no le da vergüenza confesarlo. Le gusta que Juan lo sepa, pero Juan no sabe como corresponder.

Juan vuelve a su mundo, a sus amigos, al vértigo de la motocicleta, buscando, sin saberlo, una huída . . . un escape. Pero sus triunfos ya no significan nada. Sin María, nada tiene sentido. A María, por su parte, le sucede lo mismo. Vuelve a Juan con naturalidad. Quiere verlo. Le gusta estar con él. Juan la lleva a la casa de campo de su madre. Pretende poseerla. No conoce otra manera de manifestar lo que siente. María llega a la dolorosa conclusión de que no están preparados . . . que aún no saben definir lo que sienten, ni tienen posibilidad de entenderlo.

Se desata una tormenta. Maria regresa a su casa herida y confusa. Rafael (LUIS ARAGON), padre de María, representante típico de una generación que se gobierna por el patriarcado férreo, casi irracional, inviolable, la recibe brutalmente, creyéndola mancillada. María no ha hecho nada malo. Pero tiene miedo. Algo anda mal. Suplica desesperada que la ayuden, que le expliquen, que la orienten.

Juan también se ha emancipado de los prejuicios y convencionalismos de su mundo, típicamente encarnados en su madre. Quiere a Maria de verdad. Lo ha comprendido. Intuye que ella tiene razón. Y va a casa de ella a decírselo . . . a gritarle que la ama. Así es como ella esperaba que fuera. Juan es recibido a puñetazos por Raúl (CARLOS FERNANDEZ), hermano de María. Raúl actúa creyendo defender el honor mancillado de su nombre y de su casa.

Pero los amigos de Juan, tripulando sus motos, lo han seguido para defenderlo; para patentizarle su deseo de estar con él y de que lo comprenden; porque todos, en el fondo, buscan lo mismo.

María se libera. Su madre. Lucía (CARMEN MONTEJO), le pide que vaya a reunirse con Juan . . . la alienta para que defienda su derecho a vivir su propia vida. Juan la ama. Es un cariño verdadero, que está dispuesto a defender contra todo y contra todos.

Cesar Chavez -- A cry in the wilderness for justice, an echo of the afflicted farm workers.
Hear the pain, the anguish of those who suffer, the discrimination and humiliation of our brothers? Then be concerned.
Farm workers are pleading for:
(1) Unemployment Ins.
(2) Only partial Social Security
(3) Minimum Wages
(4) Sick Leave
(5) Rest Periods
(6) Collective Bargaining
(7) Better Housing

Cesar Chavez -- Has been cited to appear in court on April 22, 1968, in Bakersfield. He and 40 farm workers are accused of not staying within the bordering line and picketing to close together. If you are able to travel to Bakersfield please go, your support is needed.
An Interfaith Vigil will be held all night Sunday, April 21, 1968, for Cesar Chavez and in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. True heroes of our time. The community is asked to participate with your presence and prayers.

On Tuesday, April 2, the people of Alviso demonstrated beyond doubt how they felt about the recent election which technically annexed Alviso to the City of San Jose.

The occasion was a town meeting, held at the local school, at which a representative of the annexing metropolis was to explain some of the benefits which had already been gained by the little town and the future benefits it would receive.

One hundred strong the demonstrators marched from the Star of the Sea Church on Michigan Ave. to the school, carrying banners protesting the legality of the election (which had carried 189 to 180 with several votes about which they would like to see investigated further).

At the meeting they made their voices heard over the protests of the chairman and others and demanded a new election!! The proposed meeting became a demonstration.

Mr. Tom Uridel of the C.S.O., who has done a tremendous job of uniting the people of Alviso into a strong force for self help (witness the clinic which he brought to that little town of 2,000 by organizing volunteers) was legaly responsible for inspiring the people to demand justice in this regard.

This writer feels strongly that the election was rather strange despite what the courts have already said, and that it should (as it will, with lawyer Steve Manley) go to the S.F. Superior Court and higher if need be.

This writer is also against annexation for these reasons: I) by staying independent, the Mexican people, who predominate there, could demonstrate to their great native ability and intelligence. They have already made a great start there, under the C.S.O. especially, to pick Alviso up by its bootstraps. Alviso does not need San Jose. II) Alviso would have to pay for the material advancement of San Jose, at least paying a portion they cannot afford. III) Alviso residents will be subject to many legal restrictions on their humble (but liveable) residences. Perhaps they could be obliged to relocate, at great expense.

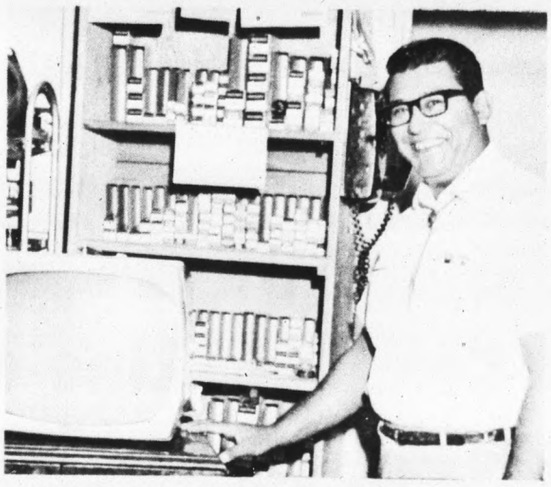

Should they trade their independence, in this oldest incorporated city of California, for sidewalks? I'd say "NO". I just wish I'd have realized it a year ago.

At any rate, I do not think the fight to keep Alviso from being annexed should cease. The demand for a new election should be granted.

Rudy Belluomini

I don't know where you're getting your political attacks, or who is paying you. (I am not investigating "Welfare Chislers") your Italian compadres are doing the chisling and using my people for bait setting up welfare raids just befor the elections, all I am doing is pushing the panic button. I understand you're a visiting friend to Della Maggiore and that Belluomini and Cortese are Italian surnames, perhaps they are my supporters?

The reason why I am being supported is because, I have proved to be a candidate willing to expose the real critical issues defending the minorities and poor against Racism, prejudice, discrimination, illiteracy, and injustice.

And the damn truth is coming out that Santa Clara county is a Racist county, that the Mexican-American and Negro are becoming a threatening competitor and are not wanted, as a person of economic advancement. Today it is not important, if I win this election or not. I can only say what I feel is right, today my life is in Danger of death, according to the State attorney general, but I know that every man, who meets danger is worth something and I am not afraid, because I am replaceable and willing to do what I must.

I fully support and defend the poor, victims of injustice and illiteracy. It is shameful, that citizens of minorities whose sons die on foreign battlefields are victims of Racism and humiliation, it's time to admit the real truth, I have faith in Almighty God, and that's why I am running for office. You can run to your two friends and give them a copy, and give one to the boss Mr. Cerito.

They play everything and they are real good at it. The most!!! We are going to have fabulous prizes for the best outfits. The idea of the dance is to wear clothes with squares, any kind of squares.

Individuals with the most original or different squares will win. If you don't want to wear clothes with squares you don't have to. Everybody is welcome and the admission is $1.50 per person. Dance time is 8:30 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. -

Bailamos????

Some persons want to know the outcome of La Casa Del Mexicano and the Kennedy Monument and here is the answer. In the case of La Casa Del Mexicano, ya bailaron los chicanitos. The funds for the Kennedy Monument are still around all I have to do now is find out what the Kennedy Committee want to do with it. Answer in next issue.

Club San Felipe expresa sus mas sinceras congratulaciones a la señorita Aurora Nieto y al señor Saul Cardenas con motivo de su proximo enlace. Son tambien nuestros deseos que tengan una eterna luna de miel.

Congratulations to Dr. Alfred Gutierrez, he was elected Mayor of Del Rio, Texas.

THIS "N" THAT

The trend now is that men can wear checks, stripes, solids or what have you as long as the colors blend. (Rene De Luna please read carefully) colors must blend. If you have any doubts you have a perfect model in Fito Hafner and Henry Navarro. O.K. Mr. Rainbow, I mean Mr. De Luna?

I hear tell that Capt. Frank Peña was here in town, too bad I didn't get to see him - so he could see the are's and not the were's. Right Frank?

Raul Chapa, Jerry Villarreal and I had a mexican (7) course dinner, a bag of fritos and a six pack of beer.

PLAYA CUP STATE GOLF TOURNAMENT

On April 28th, the Santa Clara County Mexican-American Golf Association will host the fourth Annual Playa Cup State Open Tournament at the beautiful Del Monte Country Club in Monterey. As host club and defending champion of the Playa Cup of the local chapter plans in putting on a terrific tournament that will be long remembered thruout the state.

This year we have invited and received whole hearted support from local merchants and business firms for the establishment of a scholarship program for the benefit of deserving Mexican-American students in this county. This has been done by naming the donors as co-sponsors of the tournatment.

This tournament is the first of many more to come thruout the state. As many new chapters have been formed in the past year we anticipate a tremendous turn-out which will surpass all other tournaments. Heading the list of honored guests will be our Mayor Ron James along with many noted Mexican-American figures from throughout the state.
